DEATH CALLS FORMER

COUNTY EDUCATOR.

Following an illness of less than a week, J. Clem Bates died at his home in Alameda Friday evening. Bates had been a member of the San Francisco bar for nearly fifty years and was the oldest practicing member of the Bar Association.

He came to California in 1863 from Maine, where he was born in 1836, and taught school in this city in 1864-65. While here Mr. Bates studied law under the late Horace Hawes. He was married to Miss Bertha Comstock, who was his primary teacher in this city. In 1866 the deceased was admitted to the California bar and in 1883 to practice in the United States Supreme Court.

Bates was the author of a number of legal works, among them, "History of the Bench and Bar in California" and "Forms and Use of Blanks."

His death came as a surprise to relatives and friends; the previous Saturday he was still in his office in San Francisco, but suffered from a stroke of paralysis Monday. From that time on he was confined to his bed. He is survived by a widow, three daughters and a son, former State Senator J. Clem Bates, now cashier of the San Francisco mint.

Following are among those of this city who attended school here while the deceased was the teacher: Miss Clara Shelby, Mrs. John Poole, J. F. Ford, Chase Littlejohn and P. H. McEvoy of Menlo Park.

PALO ALTO BOY SCOUTS

VISIT LOCAL YANNERY.

Troop 1, bicycle patrol, Boy Scouts, went over last Saturday to Redwood to the tannery of S. H. Frank & Co. and were shown all through the establishment by Mr. Frank, the junior member of the firm, says the Palo Alto Times. This is one of the largest tanneries in the country and Troop 1 is fortunate to have had such an opportunity, for visitors are only allowed by special arrangement. The boys saw how the hides are softened and scraped and cleaned, and then how the tanning process is carried on. They then visited the departments where leather "skirting" is made and also the department which makes the sole leather. They were given souvenirs from this department. The courteous treatment and careful consideration they received will long be remembered by those who went.

Popular Couple Wedded.

St. Peter's Episcopal church was the setting of a simple but beautiful wedding at 6 o'clock last Saturday night, when Miss Lavina Fox, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Fox was married to Mr. Oscar Sahibberg Rev. David Crabtree, rector of St. Peter's read the impressive service, which was witnessed by only the relatives of the young couple. The bride, a petite blond, looked very sweet and girlish in a tailored gown of navy blue with a chic hat to match. Her only attendant was her sister, Miss Harriet Fox, while Mr. Charles Sahibberg attended the bridegroom. Mr. and Mrs. Sahibberg are at home in a cozy flat on Stambaugh street. Both young people are very popular and have a host of friends who unite in wishing them all happiness.

COUNTY OFFICIAL TAKES FIRM STAND

District Attorney Swart Declines to be Intimidated by Threats of Disgruntled Opponent

District Attorney Franklin Swart has issued the following statement in regard to matters leading up to rumors of a "recall" movement:

District Attorney Franklin Swart.

On Tuesday, April 29th of this year, a fat young man by the name of Harry Stafford of San Francisco, who has been admitted to the bar asked me why I did not permit certain gambling in the North End.

On May 24th this same young man appeared for O. Bandoni, a hog man, in Judge Lampkin's court. A jury convicted his man and he was fined $250.00. Stafford then demanded more time which I refused to grant in that I had forced out all the other hog men except O. and P. Bandoni and I could not give them more time. Stafford demanded various favors. I refused. He then, there in the court room declared in loud tones that "just for that" he was going to start a recall on me and make me spend some money. P. H. McEvoy and Constable Walsh were there in court, and they with Judge Lampkin heard all that transpired.

ALLEN'S FOOT-EASE

The Antiseptic powder shaken into the shoes. The Standard Remedy for the feet for a quarter century. 30,000 testimonials. Sold everywhere. 25c. Sample FREE. Address, Allen S. Gilmsted, Le Roy, N. Y. The Man who put the E E in F E E.

After leaving the court room Stafford stated that he would get plenty of money to recall me. The bystanders laughed at him and nothing more was heard of Stafford.

On last Saturday warrants were again issued for the Bandonis. On yesterday the officers attempted to serve these warrants, but could not locate the defendants. This morning the "Call" publishes my picture and a sort of rumor recall story. The other newspaper men had heard of Stafford's tactics but ignored them. It may be remembered that Stafford is the same young man who within the last few months held out $5000 as a fee from the funds of B. Sheehan of San Mateo for legal services.

I shall not leave my office on account of any recall started by Harry Stafford or by any other men who attempt to work through him. His recall does not concern me whatever. I deplore the fact however, that the "San Francisco Call" will cheapen itself to a degree of catering to Stafford's type and without verifying the facts publish over the State a story of this nature rather than support a public official of San Mateo county in enforcing the laws.

Redwood City, June 10th, 1913.

Grammar-School Graduation

Delbert, the 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zimmerman of this city, was the winner of a diamond set necklace, the eighth prize in the "Shower of Gold" given by the San Francisco Bulletin. Delbert is in district number two of the contest and was the recipient of 232,990 votes.
